

Posted by Sudbury Northern Life

Graffi - Sammy Grano - Olivia Colilli - Emily Nolet - Madison Allard

The competitive team at Project Dance have had a number of successes at recent competitions in Waterloo, Collingwood and Sudbury. The team of 29 girls range in age from six to 15 years old.

Project Dance is in its third season and is the newest studio to evolve in Greater Sudbury. It offers a full program of classes for both the recreational and competitive level.

In Waterloo at the Rhythm Dance Competition they received: - Two Diamond Awards - 24 Platinum Awards - 10 Gold Awards

The owner and director of Project Dance, Maegan Fram, is the recent recipient of the YWCA Young Woman of Distinction Award. On May 30 and 31, Project Dance will have its year end recital at Sheridan Auditorium. Pre-registration for the 2009/2010 season will take place from June 11 to 12.

In Collingwood they received: - Eight Diamond - 32 Platinum - 6 High Gold - Overall Awards (19) Highest marks of the competition - Overall Intermediate Group – 1st place and 2nd place - Overall Junior Solo – Kyra Horodziejczyk - Overall Mini Solo – Kloe Malette 1st place and 3rd place - Overall Extended Line – 1st place and 2nd place - Overall Acro Group – 3rd place - Overall Novice Mini Group – 2nd place and 3rd place - Overall Acro Solo – 2nd Place Sara-Jo Santi; 3rd Place Morgan Hicks - Overall Musical Theatre - Mini Solo – Kloe Malette - Junior Solo – Samantha Grano - Intermediate Solo – Pascale Lavergne-Giroux - Junior Group - Intermediate Group - Overall Senior Pre competitive Group 1st place and 2nd place

At Dancefest in Sudbury: - One Elite - 11 High Gold - 30 Gold - Overall Awards - Most Potential Junior Dancer - Kyra Horodziejczyk - Most Potential Teen Dancer - Emily Nolet - Overall Group of Competition - Junior Group - Miss Otis Regrets

The dancers were also recognized with 29 special awards over the three competitions. Special award winners are: - Hailey Mcauley - Alexandra Caverson - Kloe Malette - Pascale Lavergne-Giroux - Kyra Horodziejczyk - Hannah Longe - Kelsey Whidden - Kyra Leroy - Amanda